A Watermen's Prayer

The crack of Dawn begins my day, down to the dock, sail out the Bay.

I pray dear God, as I leave my slip, please keep me safe on today's trip.

I pray dear God for what today's journey seeks, Crab filled baskets, Fish loaded nets, Oyster packed Dredge, a bounty to reap.

I pray dear God keep storms and trouble far away, just slick calm waters, a cool breeze my way, A safe return to shore, to sail another day.
